

I am in support of these proposed changes. They align with the spirit and objectives of recent FCC actions pertaining to streamlining the process and improving the efficiency of this communications resource.